University Description: ACU exists to provide education for both full-time Christian workers and Christians who work in various professions. Christians may have different vocations, but are trying to glorify our Lord Jesus Christ. This emphasis makes ACU more than just a place to get a higher education degree. What happens within this campus community is discovery—of ideas, of oneself, of life, and most importantly, of God and His will. The campus of Arizona Christian University is located in the scenic Paradise Valley area twelve miles north of downtown Phoenix. The setting is a valley surrounded by picturesque mountains in the midst of the distinctive semi-arid environment of Arizona.

To apply: Applicants must subscribe to a statement of Christian faith.
