

Youth Coordinator for Dove of the Desert United Methodist Church (Glendale, AZ)

Dove of the Desert United Methodist Church in Glendale, AZ is seeking a positive, energetic self-starter to continue to grow our youth ministry. The Youth Coordinator will plan and coordinate Dove Youth Fellowship (DYF) programs, oversee development of youth leadership skills, encourage youth to plan/participate in youth activities, and nurture/develop youth relationships. Additional responsibilities: Instill and develop mission focus for youth, initiate/oversee/coordinate fundraising events, work camps, and annual DYF retreats. Youth Coordinator will effectively communicate events and programs to youth and parents and identify/coordinate volunteer adult leaders.

Youth Coordinator will attend and actively participate in Children and Family Council, Youth Council, administrate youth data, develop and oversee annual youth budget, and provide written reports as needed. Youth Coordinator will attend annual continuing education at the national or Desert Southwest Conference level.

Certified youth worker credentials a plus.

Must complete and pass a background check

This is a part-time position – 15 hours per week.

For a full job description interested parties are asked to submit a resume as well as a description of your personal statement of faith NO LATER THAN October 15, 2015 to:
DoveSPRC@doveofthedesert.com.